

1925

Beyond Minimum

248SQFT

2015

In the 1920s and 1930s, Margarete Schütte-Lihotzky conceived and designed long-term, low-rent apartments for independent women in the 1920s and 1930s. This bedsitter apartment, with built-in furnishings, was designed for Ms. C. Neubacher of Vienna. Urban Subjects for Western Front, 2015. urgentimagination.front.bc.ca

1956

Beyond Minimum

614 SQ FT

2015

In response to a crisis of homelessness in Paris, Jean Prouvé designed the prefabricated emergency shelter, Maison des Jours Meilleurs (A House for Better Days) in 1956. This iconic pre-fab, for 4-6 people, could be assembled in 7 hours. Urban Subjects for Western Front, 2015. urgentimagination.front.bc.ca

1973-85

Beyond Minimum

398 SQ FT

2015

Rooftop swimming pool at Alt-Erlaa Social Housing Estate, Vienna, Austria, designed by Harry Glück & Partners (1973-1985). Alt-Erlaa has 3,172 units, the smallest is 398 square feet. Urban Subjects for Western Front, 2015. urgentimagination.front.bc.ca